

EmPath to Integration™ Refund Policy

Dear Student,

If after in engagement with the course material, you would like to request a refund, you may contact Susie at susiebeiler@hotmail.com with the Subject title, “EmPath Course Refund Request”.

Refunds are considered on a case by case basis.

You have up to 30 days after enrollment to request a refund. Refunds will not be considered after 30 days.

*Engagement with course material is defined as watching the videos and implementing the suggestions from the PDFs. As the administrator, I am able to view the percentage of the material with which you have engaged. You must have completed at least 75% of the course material to be considered for a refund. In addition, you must have engaged on the discussion board, either with comments or questions at least 3 times. This shows that you have put for a good faith effort to utilize the material.

If you have any questions, please email me at susiebeiler@hotmail.com.

Warmly, Susie
